

Mini-Lecture Series for Adults 55+

Content: Of interest to adults 55+ but lectures open to general public
 Admission: Free
 Time: 10:00 AM to Noon; nutrition break provided

Registration required: Contact StFX Continuing & Distance Education
 867-3319 or cmaceach@stfx.ca

Spring 2017 SCHEDULE
TUESDAYS 10:00 - Noon	PRESENTER	TOPIC: "Making Sense of the News"	LOCATION
April 4 th	Dr. Lavinia Stan	Current events: Europe	Antigonish People's Place Library – Community Room
April 11 th	Dr. Robert Zecker	Current events: America
April 18 th	Dr. Jim Bickerton	Current events: Canada
TUESDAYS 10:00 - Noon	PRESENTER	TOPIC: "Can We See Our Community in New Ways?"	LOCATION
May 2 nd	Gord Cunningham	"The story of British Columbia after the standoff at Clayoquot Sound in 1993. What lessons can be learned?"	Antigonish People's Place Library – Community Room
May 9 th	Dr. Phil Davison	"Story of African-American communities in rural Alabama. How can we recognize and build new forms of wealth?"
May 16 th	Dr. Santo Dodaro	"Economics 101. What's new in the new economy?"

Sponsored by StFX Continuing & Distance Education & People's Place Library

Special thank you to the Bergengren Branch of the East Coast Credit Union

For additional information or to register, contact:

StFX Continuing & Distance Education Department 867-3319 or cmaceach@stfx.ca

Pictou-Antigonish
Regional Library

